PART 2 - Declaration of Taxpayer for State Only Returns

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have compared my 2002 Utah Individual Income Tax return with the information I provided to my Electronic Return Originator, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, my return is true, correct and complete. This declaration, together with the accompanying schedules and statements, is to be forwarded to the Utah State Tax Commission by my Electronic Return Originator as validation of my electronically filed Utah Individual Income Tax return. I understand that if there is an error in my return, it will be rejected and my Utah refund may be delayed.

Taxpayer signature	Date	Spouse signature	Date

Electronically submitted tax return information does not constitute a filed Utah tax return until all of the required data and supporting documents have been received by the Utah State Tax Commission. Each applicable supporting document or form must be completed and submitted in accordance with the following instructions.

DO NOT include a copy of your return or withholding forms (W-2, W-2G, 1099G, and 1099R).

IRS-DCN. Enter the same 14-digit Document Control Number (DCN) assigned by the Electronic Return Originator (ERO) to identify your electronically submitted federal tax return.

PART 1. If any form noted on the Utah TC-8453 is a part of the Utah individual income tax return filed electronically, then the TC-8453 must be submitted along with the applicable form(s) that is checked.

PART 2. A taxpayer may file their Utah State return electronically, separate from the federal return. If you filed a "Utah State Only Return," the signature of the taxpayer and/or spouse is required. See Part 2 above.

Name, Address, Social Security Number. Your social security number(s) and name(s) must match your social security card(s). Type or print your social security number(s), name(s), address and telephone number(s) in the spaces provided. If you file a joint return, make sure that you enter the social security numbers in the same order that your names are shown. Also, type or print your daytime and evening telephone numbers.

When and Where to File

The ERO must mail the TC-8453 and attachments to the Utah State Tax Commission, 210 N 1950 W, Salt Lake City, UT 84134-0210, no later than the next working day after receiving the state acknowledgment that the return was received and accepted. If a third-party transmitter is used, the ERO must mail this information the next working day after receiving the state acknowledgment from the Transmitter.
